VOLUNTEER TODAY

RECOMMEND A COLLEAGUE FOR A 2023 AALL AWARD / DEADLINE IS MARCH 1

Leadership, innovation, and excellence play a vital role within the law librarianship profession. The AALL Awards publicly recognize exemplary individuals who have made a lasting impact on the profession. This is your opportunity to honor a deserving colleague, or nominate yourself. Recipients are selected by the committees/award juries and will be recognized this summer at the 2023 AALL Annual Meeting & Conference in Boston.

The deadline for nominations is March 1, 2023. Applications may be found on the individual award pages.

CHANGES TO LAW LIBRARY JOURNAL

AALL has been implementing changes to the Law Library Journal \(LLJ\) production process to bring the journal back on schedule and to communicate promptly to members who submit articles. As we move forward with this transition, if you have article or idea for an article that you wish to submit to LLJ, please email it to Heather Haemker, AALL's director of marketing & communications. The LLJ Submission Guidelines have also been revised to reflect this change. As we finalize the selection for the new LLJ editor, we want to ensure there is no lapse in communication. If you submitted an article and would like a status update, please reach out to Heather Haemker. We value our members' hard work, and the Association is here to support our members' professional growth.

AALL NEW VOICES / SHARE YOUR POST BY DECEMBER 16

AALL's New Voices gives you the opportunity to share your story and expertise. Whether you recently joined AALL or are a longtime member aiming to become more involved in the Association, AALL is looking for your insights on any aspect of law librarianship.

Possible subjects include a legal interest of your choice, favorite resource, go-to stressbusters, starting a new role, leadership tips, and diversity, equity, and inclusion. Submissions should be about 100-600 words. If you're interested in being involved in the next round, please share your post with Heather Haemker, director of marketing & communications, with the subject line "New Voices Project" by 5:00 p.m. (CST) on December 16, 2022.
