2023 AALL SALARY SURVEY / RESPONSES DUE WEDNESDAY

The deadline to submit responses for the 2023 AALL Salary Survey has been extended through this Wednesday, June 14. To ensure that we have enough data to compile a complete report for AALL members, the participation of those in a director-level role who received the survey is essential. If you would like to designate another appropriate person to fill out the survey on your behalf—for example, an HR manager—please contact Heather Haemker.

THERE IS STILL TIME TO JOIN US IN BOSTON FOR AALL 2023

AALL 2023 is only five weeks away, but there is still time for you to join over 1,200 of your colleagues in Boston this summer. Don’t miss out on more than 65 educational programs covering timely topics, including AI, data analytics, and more, networking opportunities with your colleagues, and the chance to learn about the latest innovations in legal tech from over 60 exhibitors—get energized with new techniques and strategies to benefit your library and its users. Let your employer know why you need to be at AALL 2023. Download the Justification Toolkit to make your case for attending the conference.

Hurry! Book your housing at one of AALL’s hotels to receive the discounted rate. Additional rooms have been added to the Sheraton hotel, and we have added a new hotel, the Hilton Boston Back Bay.

ORDER YOUR COPY / 2023 AALL STATE OF THE PROFESSION REPORT

The third edition of the AALL State of the Profession report is available to order on AALLNET. The report provides organizations and law librarians with the insights needed to understand the current legal information landscape, as well as prepare for the future. The report covers demographics, budgets, user services, collections, operations, technology, and more. This edition highlights how law libraries in various organizations have bounced back following the pandemic, especially with respect to budgets and remote/in-person work.

In addition to the exclusive interview with Law360 that AALL President-Elect June Liebert participated in, the report was covered by Bob Ambrogi in his LawSites blog and shared on InfoDocket. The report is available in digital, print, and a print + digital bundle.

MEMORIAL

Mary Ann Gilligan was the intellectual property research services manager for Jones Day in Manhattan until her retirement. Prior to this, Gilligan was the director at Pennie & Edmonds for several years before it became Jones Day. She received her BA from Park College and later earned her MA at Rutgers University. Gilligan was one of the founding “Mothers’ of Invention” of the Private Law Librarians & Information Professionals Special Interest Section (PLLIP-SIS) Intellectual Property Caucus. In addition to being the only law librarian who studied for the patent bar exam, she was an expert on historic preservation and restoration and zoning law. She was a member of AALL from 1986-2020, in addition to being a member of the American Bar Association, Special Libraries Association, and the Law Library Association of Greater New York, serving as a board member from 1999-2000. She passed away May 28, 2023.
