2023 AALL SALARY SURVEY / DEADLINE EXTENDED

The deadline to submit responses for the 2023 AALL Salary Survey has been extended through Wednesday, June 14. To ensure that we have enough data to compile a complete report for AALL members, the participation of those in a director-level roles who received the survey is essential. If you would like to designate another appropriate person to fill out the survey on your behalf—for example, an HR manager—please contact Heather Haemker.

EDUCATION DESIGNED FOR YOU / REGISTER FOR AALL 2023

#AALL23 is six weeks away and we would love to see you there! Join us July 15-18 in Boston for over 65 educational programs on timely topics such as AI, the world of data, and creating a pipeline to the profession, the chance to network with your colleagues and make new connections, and to learn about the latest advancements in the legal market from over 58 exhibitors. Today is the last day to submit a poster session. Showcase your great ideas, projects, and programs for your colleagues.

Hurry! Additional rooms have been added to the Sheraton hotel. We have also added a new hotel, the Hilton Boston Back Bay. Don't delay, book your housing to receive the discounted rate.

ORDER YOUR COPY / 2023 AALL STATE OF THE PROFESSION REPORT
The third edition of the AALL State of the Profession report is available to order on AALLNET. The report provides organizations and law librarians with the insights needed to understand the current legal information landscape, as well as prepare for the future. The report covers demographics, budgets, user services, collections, operations, technology, and more. This edition highlights how law libraries in various organizations have bounced back following the pandemic, especially with respect to budgets and remote/in-person work.

In addition to the exclusive interview with Law360 that AALL President-Elect June Liebert participated in, the report was covered by Bob Ambrogi in his LawSites blog and shared on InfoDocket. The report is available in digital, print, and a print + digital bundle.

MEMORIAL

Mary Ann Gilligan was the intellectual property research services manager for Jones Day in Manhattan until her retirement. Prior to this, Gilligan was the director at Pennie & Edmonds for several years before it became Jones Day. She received her BA from Park College and later earned her MA at Rutgers University. Gilligan was one of the founding “Mothers” of Invention of the Private Law Librarians & Information Professionals Special Interest Section (PLLIP-SIS) Intellectual Property Caucus. In addition to being the only law librarian who studied for the patent bar exam, she was an expert on historic preservation and restoration and zoning law. She was a member of AALL from 1986-2020, in addition to being a member of the American Bar Association, Special Libraries Association, and the Law Library Association of Greater New York, serving as a board member from 1999-2000. She passed away May 28, 2023.
