ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

AALL STAFF NEWS

Nikki Stout has joined AALL as the manager of content marketing. Her responsibilities include collecting, analyzing, researching, and sharing content with members through a variety of channels such as social media, resource guides, and other mediums. She will also be responsible for managing the production of the Salary Survey and the State of the Profession Report. Nikki holds a BA in English Language and Linguistics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with experience in journalism, corporate communications, and blog development. Her most recent role was as the content manager and technical writer at Fountain, a tech startup where she developed client-specific reference material, brand identity for the company's website, and communications across multiple channels. In her spare time, Nikki contributes to a local, independent radio station as a show host and blog director. Nikki is thrilled to be joining AALL and looks forward to building bridges between members and connecting them with resources to support their thriving careers! Her email address is nstout@aall.org; please join us in welcoming Nikki to AALL.
