UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA RECEIVES IMLS GRANT

Congratulations to Teresa M. Miguel-Stearns and the team at the University of Arizona Daniel F. Cracchiolo Law Library on being awarded a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services \(IMLS\). The University plans to use the funds to expand their Law Library Fellows Program with the goals of encouraging more students to enter the legal information field, recruiting law libraries around the country to host Fellows, and promoting law librarianship to students from historically underrepresented backgrounds. Teresa credits AALL's August 2022 Webinar: "Shaping the Future of IMLS Programs with Law Library Needs in Mind" for spurring this project on. For members and institutions aspiring to make a difference through IMLS grants, please refer to the various grant programs for more information.

AALL NEW VOICES / SUBMISSIONS DUE AUGUST 11

AALL's New Voices is a place to share your story and expertise. Whether you recently joined AALL or are a longtime member aiming to become more involved in the Association, AALL is looking for your insights on any aspect of law librarianship.

If you're interested in being involved in the next round, please share your post with Heather Haemker, director of marketing & communications, with the subject line "New Voices Project" by 5:00 p.m. (CDT) on August 11, 2023.
