American Association of Law Libraries Announces 2024 Hall of Fame Award Inductee

Jean P. O’Grady Honored by AALL

CHICAGO – May 14, 2024 —The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) proudly announces that Jean P. O’Grady has been honored with the 2024 Hall of Fame Award in recognition for her outstanding contribution to the field of law librarianship.

The Hall of Fame Award is known for celebrating significant, substantial, and long-standing contributions to the profession and service to the Association. As a recipient of the Hall of Fame Award, O’Grady has demonstrated a history of career achievement, sustained commitment to the advancement of the profession, and significant contributions to AALL.

“We are thrilled and honored to recognize Jean P. O’Grady with the prestigious Hall of Fame Award,” said AALL President June Hsiao Liebert. “Her leadership and contributions, including her influential blog, Dewey B Strategic, have played a vital role in advocating for our profession and enhancing its visibility.”

O’Grady expressed gratitude for the recognition sharing: “I am so honored to receive the AALL Hall of Fame Award. I want to especially thank the friends and colleagues who nominated me,” said O’Grady. “It has been an honor to serve in such a noble profession and to support AALL and the law library community as a former Executive Board Member, PLLIP President, LLAGNY President, committee member, and volunteer. I want to thank Marsha Pront, who hired me for my first law firm job at Proskauer, as well as the law firms who hired me for my successive director roles at Shea & Gould, WilmerHale, DLA Piper, and Venable. Each firm enabled me to hire amazing and talented colleagues and gave us a “living laboratory” where we could expand and explore innovative knowledge initiatives using cutting-edge technology. What a fun and amazing ride it has been! I feel very humbled, blessed, and grateful to receive the Hall of Fame Award.”
