

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED – AALL MATERIALS

During the AALL Virtual Members Open Forum, as well as at AALL 2024 in Chicago, many of you had questions about the status of the AALL materials. As a 118-year-old Association, I want to reassure you that we are very proud of our legacy. We recognize the importance of preserving our rich history, and the current process will ensure we are protecting the right materials.

For you to better understand the status of the AALL materials, we created this FAQ. This resource provides responses to ongoing questions. Please see this video for some additional details.

I urge you to review both resources. If you have further questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me at Cornell.H.Winston@usdoj.gov.
